

25TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

SEPTEMBER 18, 2016

Following Jesus: Invitation to Discipleship

Jesus said to his disciples...

No disciple is superior to the teacher;
but when fully trained, every disciple
will be like the teacher.

Luke 6: 39a,40

How are we doing? We're all in training.

What do we do? Pray to be open in mind and heart to the one who loved us first, that one being Jesus Christ.

From the Desk of Kim DoyleSt. Wenceslaus School News

The school year is up and running for another great year. We are excited to have many new families and students who have chosen our faith-filled environment. Our school is committed to teaching our students to develop a relationship with God in our daily interactions, through prayer, and through study. We develop the heart and souls of our students along with providing an outstanding academic education. This is the whole person that we are created to be with a spirit, mind, and body that grows closer to God each day.

St. Wenceslaus School has now become a C-STEM focused school. C-STEM stands for our Catholic school with a focus on science, technology, engineering, and math. Teachers are using methods and materials that help students learn to problem solve in areas of STEM and to collaborate with others in doing so. Students are experiencing many hands on projects that are preparing them for the future of the 21st century.

There are many events and activities planned for the school year. The first of these is our school marathon. The marathon is not only one of the biggest fundraisers of the year, but it is also a fun event for the students. Students are collecting donations for the school. Our goal is to raise $42,000 for our school budget. The marathon is one of many fundraising activities that help sustain the school program at St. Wenceslaus. We are dependent on the success of all of our fundraisers. This one is part of a statewide event in which all non-public schools participate in together. It is sponsored by the Knights of Columbus. The SWS marathon will take place on Saturday, September 24th, at 8:30 am in Memorial Park. The day consists of a one-hour walk followed by prizes and a hot dog lunch provided by the local Knights of Columbus. It is a festive event that brings all school families together with school spirit that can't be beat! Students are now going door-to-door collecting pledges. Please be generous if they approach you and ask you to support their school. If you do not get a contact from one of the little ones, there is an opportunity to sponsor one of our pastors (see page 6 of the bulletin) who will be present at the school marathon too. You are also welcome to join us at Memorial Park on marathon day for this great school year beginning!

Thank you for supporting our Catholic School and please continue to pray for our success and growth.

From the Desk of Father Dave

Divine Healer

I had a busy Thursday ahead of me. I was going to have the funeral service for Taylor Wieland that day. I had a busy weekend ahead of me. I had a marriage couple to meet with. I was going to meet with a young man entering the Catholic Church. I was going to lead a Patriotic Rosary. I, I, I...but God had other plans. On the brink of exhaustion and not having a decent meal since Monday, I went to the ER of the Mayo Hospital in New Prague on Wednesday evening. The doctors poked and prodded me through a series of tests determining I had pneumonia. Being quite sick, Fr. Kevin anointed me and my journey of healing began.

The sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is a vital ministry in our Church. However, it was far from the only one I experienced during my three days in the hospital. The staff gave excellent care including doctors to nurses, those that made my wonderful meals, kept my room clean and all who helped to heal me as I journey to recovery. I will be forever grateful. Each of them ministered in their own way. Most of the decisions made were right on, and even though I had a few setbacks, there was always a reason for hope.

The reason for hope is your prayers to the Divine Healer of which I am so appreciative. My illness was rather minor compared to the travails you may have faced, but the Divine Healer is there for all of us. The Paschal mystery becomes very real when we are sick. We can connect our pain and suffering to what Jesus experienced on the cross. There may be death or loss, and Jesus knows how hard this is for us. Then of course there is the resurrection. We become healed, we make progress, or sometimes it gets worse resulting in death. The Divine Healer is always there to come to our assistance no matter who we are or in what condition we are in.

PARISH AND AREA NEWS

Our parish community has experienced the completion of a major part of our campus, the PARKING LOT. After the 10:30 Mass, we will gather for a simple ceremony to dedicate and celebrate the completion of this massive effort. Go to our website, npcatholic.org, to view the making of the beautiful Laudato Si sign.

YOUTH ALIVE begins September 28th for high school seniors!

To our SOON-TO-BE-SENIORS (and their parents):

WOW-when did that happen?

Senior year is such an exciting, scary, up-in-the-air kind of year. Teens are on the verge of adulthood and making some important decisions for their future. We know we are all made in the image and likeness of God with a divine purpose...but what does that mean? What is our divine purpose? We are much happier in our lives if we figure this out. That's where Youth Alive and Youth Ministry come into play. This year's Youth Alive will focus primarily on service, fun, and deepening our relationship with Jesus. Our groups will be primarily led by Pamela, our new Youth Minister. Your lovely leaders: Kris Beatrez, Birdie Breiner, Jamie Schoenbauer, and Lynn Schoenbauer are still on board to walk with you! All are welcome! Come and see!
