

SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

February 11, 2018

Traditional Lenten Disciplines

Fasting & Abstinence:

Catholics age 14 and older are to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, and all Fridays in Lent. In addition, on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, Catholics age 18 to 59 are to fast, limiting themselves to one full meal and two smaller meals each day.

Prayer:

Catholics are encouraged to pray more during Lent, especially with Scripture. Lent is also an ideal time to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation in preparation for the celebration of Christ's Passion, Death, and Resurrection.

Almsgiving:

Moved by the sacrifice of Christ, many Christians combine almsgiving with fasting, giving to the poor the money they saved by eating, drinking or buying less as they rely more upon God's abundant grace.

The Season of Lent consists of six Sundays and forty weekdays which are designed to prepare us for the high feast of Easter. Lent begins on Ash Wednesday and ends with the beginning of the Mass of the Lord's Supper in the evening on Holy Thursday.

Holy Week is a term that is still used even with the renewal of the Triduum. It refers to the week beginning with Palm (Passion) Sunday and ending with Holy Saturday. It includes the last days of Lent.

The Triduum, the ancient "Great Three Days," celebrate the heart of our Christian Faith. It begins with the evening Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday, continues through Good Friday and Holy Saturday, and culminates in the Easter Vigil. The Triduum actually concludes with Evening Prayer of Easter Sunday.

From the Desk of Mary Higgins

Jesus: Come, follow me. Be my disciple.

You: (Choose one)

- No thanks.
- Um, let me get back to you on that.
- Yes, I want to be your disciple.
Teach me what I must do.

On Wednesday we begin another Lenten season. Lent is traditionally a time when Catholics take stock of their spiritual life and try a little harder. We resolve to spend more time in prayer and attend some extra church services. We make sacrifices and share with the poor through the Rice Bowl.

Our parish Lenten mailing includes a schedule of Lenten and Holy Week services and opportunities for spiritual enrichment. Please take some time to look it over and choose something that works for you.

You could start with this:

Lenten Discipleship Kickoff ~ Sunday, February 11

7-7:45 pm Discipleship Evening in the PAC with our Dominican friends, Fr. James Peter and Fr. Vincent. Music and testimonies from some young Catholics. ALL are invited.

(Follows 6-7 pm Youth Mass with Fr. Vincent and Fr. James Peter)

From the Desk of Deacon Bob

I received an education in how individuals like to group people into categories when, as a junior in high school, I moved back to Minnesota from Chicago. The high school that I chose was a microcosm of cliques, of those who were "in" and those who were "out". Having been in the same school from kindergarten, students over time had been sentenced to social ghettos within the high school. There were the jocks/cheerleaders, the popular kids, the geeks, the street kids, the hippies, and so on. Being new to the school, I could not be assigned a specific student ghetto. As a result, I floated freely within the social ghettos of the high school and quickly learned the difference between a genuine welcome and a phony welcome. I chose the clique that welcomed me genuinely and in doing so met my future bride.

In the scripture readings today, we experience the social ghettos of 1st century Jewish society. There were those people who were the religiously righteous and those who were the ostracized. Jesus floated equally among the contrasting religious ghettos of his society. What the religious righteous of his time could not wrap their minds around was why Jesus didn't spend more time with them, and why he spent more of his time associating with and ministering to the lepers, social, and literal of their society, namely, the prostitutes, the tax collectors, and all they considered "sinners." As the Gospels illustrate, Jesus was very astute as to who welcomed him genuinely and those who did not.

In our relationship with other people, we like to think in categories of "us" and "them." What this Gospel demonstrates for us is that there are no "lepers" estranged from God. There is no "us" and "them" in God's eyes. All humanity, regardless of race, culture, religion, and nation, are children of the one true God. The religious and social ghettos we construct in human society and within our own parish are in direct conflict with the Divine plan of God. This Gospel challenges all of us to reexamine the way we order our world.

SCHOOL NEWS from SWS*SWS STAFF SHOWCASE
Becky Zwirner ~ 6th Grade

Becky Zwirner has been a teacher at Saint Wenceslaus

School for 16 years, and teaching for 20! During this time, she has taught 5th-8th graders. At SWS, she has found her niche teaching math and science at the upper level. Mrs. Zwirner attended Minnesota State University at Mankato for elementary education and received her Master's from St. Mary's University. She has also recently added a STEM certification from St. Kate's to her list of accomplishments. Becky also enjoys coaching softball at New Prague High School. In her free time, she enjoys spending time with her family, playing cards, solving puzzles, and playing games. Mrs. Zwirner is a dynamic teacher and is well respected by her colleagues and especially by her students. Her talents go a long ways and she is a tremendous asset to St. Wenceslaus!

SWS Enrollment Nights

St. Wenceslaus School is holding two special nights for enrollment. We will have a preschool registration night for our Little Saints Preschool on Feb. 6th and a kindergarten information night on Feb. 12th. Both events take place in the evening and are planned for parents to bring their children. Please contact the school for more information and to sign up for school beginning in the fall.

St. John's & St. Scholastica*A Note from Deacon Bob ~

I want to thank all involved with our 10 am Mass this past weekend with Archbishop Hebda. My thanks to Joseph and Trenton who assisted the Archbishop, to Avery and Jordan, who served, and their mom, Jess, who proclaimed the scriptures so very well. My great thanks to Brian Rynda for his musical leadership and all in the choir who led the congregation in song, Sue, Diane, Shelly, Ann, Cindy, Jim and Lisa, Lois, Edna, Don and Rose (I hope I didn't leave anyone out). My thanks to our ever faithful Eucharistic Ministers, Lori, Amy and Megan, and to Carol Weiers, our Sacristan. My thanks to the Knights of Columbus from our New Prague Council who added to the solemnity of the Mass. And, last but not least, a great thanks to all from our New Prague Area Catholic Community who participated in the celebration of the Mass. The Archbishop expressed how warmly he felt welcomed within our faith community.
