Western Catholic Community

From the Desk of Deacon Bob

Generally, we dream about living a life in which all that we want, wealth, security, and relationships come free without any obstacles and conflict, a life without sacrifice. While it may sound idyllic, it is a life of emptiness, devoid of any meaning and worth. I remember a Jack Nicholson movie, As Good As It Gets, in which Nicholson plays a man who is very successful, pretty much having everything he needs, but finds his life empty. The man suffers from Obsessive Compulsive Disorder, has a general dislike for humanity in general which causes him to behave in an intolerable manner toward others. The only one who tolerates his behavior is a waitress whom he comes to like very much. He wonders if his life is "as good as it gets," and wanting to develop a relationship with the waitress finds that it comes at a cost. He must sacrifice the way he has lived in order to date her.

Jesus teaches us that to find true fulfillment in life we must be willing to sacrifice ourselves. "Amen, amen, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but if it dies, it produces much fruit. Whoever loves his life loses it, and whoever hates his life in this world will preserve it for eternal life." Jesus tells us that we cannot buy happiness and fulfillment. The world can only offer us an illusion of happiness and fulfillment, but like Nicholson's character in the film, we will always wonder if this is "as good as it gets." Prior to his arrest in the garden, Jesus teaches his disciples that there is no greater love than to lay down one's life for a friend. He then commands them, "Love one another as I have loved you." So that his apostles and all humanity may find true happiness and fulfillment, Jesus then goes forth to sacrifice his life for us on the cross. Today, Jesus challenges us to "love one another as I have loved you," by sacrificing ourselves for others.

PARISH AND AREA NEWS

Council of Catholic Women and Ladies of the Parish,

Do you know what is behind our main altar? Please join us on Mon, Mar. 19th to find out. We will start with Stations of the Cross at 6 pm with a tour of the church at 6:30 and then a short meeting and light snack in the church basement. Email me at mary.wick@swsaints.org if you have any questions. Hope to see you there!

Men's Group

The Men's Group will be meeting at the Parish Office Building (old rectory) of St. Wenceslaus on Thurs., Mar. 22nd at 7 pm. All adult male parishioners of St. Wenceslaus and the Western Catholic Community are invited. No advance reading is necessary; but, if possible, please bring a Bible. Invite a friend. If you have any questions, please call David Karan at (952) 461-3067 or Bob Kehrwald at (952) 923-7545.

Change of Date—Women's Reprieve

Our Women's Lenten Reprieve had originally been scheduled for March 18th. Due to another event happening that night... we have decided to postpone it to April 8th at 7 pm in the Chapel at St. Wenceslaus. Mark your calendars for this time to take a deep breath, relax, and focus on the Holy Spirit alive and active in your life. Sounds wonderful—doesn't it?

Passion Pantomime

Our teens, Father Kevin, director—Kathleen Pomije Ebnert, and Pamela Sherlock have been spending many hours preparing for the Passion Pantomime. This is such a moving dramatization of the Gospel story we hear on Palm Sunday and Good Friday. If you have not witnessed it before, you will be moved. Children are invited to begin Palm Sunday waving palm branches and walking in procession behind the banners. They will then return to their seats but be invited back to the front for the dramatization. This portrayal will take place at all three Masses at the St. Wenceslaus site on Palm Sunday and both Good Friday liturgies.

Easter Egg Hunt

Sun., Mar. 25th after the 8:30 am Mass at the St. Wenceslaus site. Ages toddler to 8 years old, bring your basket! RSVP to lynn.sticha@npcatholic.org.

Did you see the fliers in the Lenten Mailing?

How is your Lenten journey going? Not only did our Lenten fliers give you some suggestions on opportunities for Lent... BUT, there was a weekly bulletin (We thirst for you O Lord) filled with fun facts, family activities, and other Lenten thoughts. We hope you take a few minutes to read it each week... Who knew about sea snails and the color purple? How about what was once considered the official Catholic food of Lent? This might surprise you.

How are you answering His call to discipleship?

An opportunity has come your way! Sacristans are needed for Sunday Masses. Anyone interested in discussing the duties and responsibilities of this important Ministry is invited to contact Karen Rauschke at (952) 457-2730. See what it's like to experience setting the Lord's Table.

When Lent is over...what's next?

A Biblical Walk through the Mass

Come to know and understand the Mass like never before with Dr. Edward Sri. Learn why we say what we say and do what we do as Catholics. With freshly awakened eyes of faith, the words and gestures will be seen in a new light, leading to a richer, more fruitful worship experience. Join Amber Dudley for this video presentation and discussion study. Tuesdays, April 3–May 29, 7-8:30 pm in the parish office parlor, St. Wenceslaus site. Questions? Email your study leader: badudley@bevcomm.net.

March FoodShare Campaign

Minnesota FoodShare's March Campaign is the largest food drive in the state and relies on the generosity of congregations like ours to be the heart of the campaign. All monetary and food donations go directly to Peace Center Food Shelf to help those in need in our community. Please consider donating. There is a collection box at the back of the church. Peace Center is in need of many items including: cake mixes, spaghetti, mayo, salad dressings, taco stuff, pickles cranberries, cream of chicken soup, snack crackers, salt, choc chips, and personal care items (shampoo, soap, toothpaste & deodorant).

SCHOOL NEWS from SWS

SWS STAFF SHOWCASE

Jill McBroom ~ 7th Grade Teacher

Jill McBroom is delighted to be part of the middle school teaching team at Saint Wenceslaus School! Jill is a Chicago native, earning a Bachelor's Degree in Elementary Education from the University of Illinois and a Master's Degree in Curriculum and Instruction from National Louis University. She began her career teaching middle school math and science in Illinois, also serving as a Curriculum Specialist. Jill married Joe McBroom and they wisely chose New Prague as the place to raise their five children. After staying home with her children, Jill re-entered the workforce as a preschool teacher at Little Saints Preschool and an early childhood screener. She couldn't resist the opportunity to go back to her roots and teach middle school math and science. Jill has 10 years of experience teaching middle school and believes that students learn best by doing (and having a little fun along the way)! This philosophy blends beautifully with the STEM focus at St. Wenceslaus School. SWS feels like a second home to her and she is grateful to have the opportunity to blend her faith and love of teaching. In her "free time", she enjoys attending her children's sporting events, playing cards, reading, and gardening.
