

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

At supper, Jesus took bread in His hands. He gave thanks to God. Then He broke the bread into pieces. He gave the bread to His disciples. Jesus said, "This is my body."

Next, Jesus took a cup of wine, He gave thanks to God. Then he passed the cup to His disciples. Jesus said, "This is my blood. It is poured out for you for the forgiveness of sins."

Jesus told His followers: "Do this in memory of me." — Based on Luke 22:17-20

A Message Regarding Confirmation

The sacraments are a beautiful way in which God meets us and strengthens us on our faith journey. God takes the initiative by making an offer of grace. The believer then accepts the offer and opens themselves up to divine intervention. In the words of Jeff Cavins, "It is a genuine, interpersonal meeting with the living God."

I have been blessed to have served as a Confirmation catechist and share in this faith walk alongside our candidates. During the past two years, this pursuit has led us through lessons on a myriad of topics; participating in Masses together; engaging talks with inspirational speakers; meaningful retreats; youth ministry events offering social, spiritual, and service opportunities; growing a relationship with sponsors, as well as committing to service for others in our church, family, and community. It has been a joy to share in this truly blessed endeavor!

I'm so excited to know our candidates have chosen to develop a deeper Catholic faith. It is the beginning of a lifelong commitment to grow in faith and engage in the life of the Church. We have much to admire and be proud of in our candidates this year. I have encountered such sincere, faith-filled, joyful hearts in our youth! I encourage our candidates to stay active in learning about their faith through a high school Youth Alive group and/or by volunteering to serve in one of the parish ministry groups.

May all of us renew the Holy Spirit's gifts we received in the sacraments and allow them to enlighten us! May our spiritual gifts give us strength to continue to grow in our faith, love, and service of God and others! We are called to make a difference in the world. In serving others, we'll discover more about who we are and the unique gifts God has given each of us.

On your Confirmation Day and always, know that God is there to guide you and His plans for you are always good!

In faith, Rose M. Simones
Confirmation Catechist

The Joy of...

Have you ever noticed the number of "The Joy of ..." books that are available either in hardcopy or digital formats? There are many books promising joy on all sorts of topics. The Joy of 1) Cooking, 2) Mathematics, 3) Running, 4) Missing Out, 5) Cookies, 6) Doing Nothing, 7) Retirement, to name just a few. Over my lifetime, I have read quite a number of "The Joy of ..." books. For all the topics on "joy" I have read, none has increased the level of joy in my life. Today, Jesus makes a promise to us. If we remain in him and he in us, and if we live his commandment, then we will not only have joy in our lives, we will experience "complete joy."

So what is this commandment we must live in order to attain complete joy? It is expressed by Jesus as "love one another as I have loved you." In 1 John, it is expressed that we must love one another because love is of God. To find complete joy, we cannot focus our joy in loving only ourselves. Rather, complete joy is found in our lives only by focusing our love on someone else.

All the books that begin with the words "The Joy of ..." are about only finding joy and fulfillment for ourselves. Our society is currently one in which the only person that is important is "me" to the exclusion of everyone else. This is narcissistic individualism. It breaks down the relationships that must exist for a healthy human society, including the relationships within our own families. Narcissism is not the path to complete joy, rather, it is the path to complete despair.

To find the complete joy that Jesus promises, we must love as Jesus loved, in short, focusing our love on God and on our neighbor. This act of giving our love to God and others empties ourselves of the narcissism that fills our lives. In emptying the self-conceit and self-centeredness from our lives, we will find God filling the empty space with Divine joy.

Help Wanted:

We are in need of a weekend custodian to make sure the church is open and ready for weekend activities and Masses. Duties include cleaning, setting up for activities, unlocking doors, shoveling snow, and other responsibilities as assigned. The work is on Saturday evenings and Sunday mornings until early afternoon. Wages are competitive and the successful candidate will need to pass a criminal background check, receive VIRTUS training, and sign a code of conduct. If interested, please contact Peter Guzulaitis at (952) 758-3225 or at peter.guzulaitis@npcatholic.org.

Welcome ~ New Volunteers at Hope House

Our next hosting session is May 27-June 10. Want to give it a try? New volunteer training Sat., May 19th, 8:30-10 am at Hope House, 305 Columbus Ave. N. Already been trained? Invite someone new to join you!

Plan ahead...

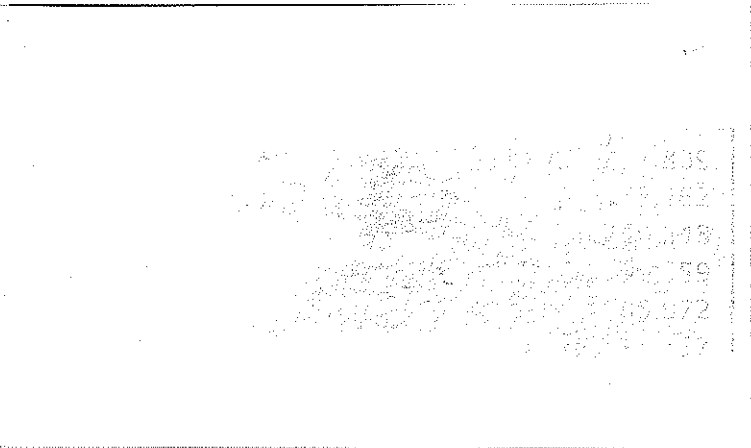

Want to chaperone a field trip at SWS or Disciples of Christ? Want to volunteer in the classroom or be a catechist or helper to our children? If so, then join us for a VIRTUS session! To keep our children safe, the archdiocese mandates that all staff and volunteers have the Essential-3. This consists of a background check, code of conduct, and a very informative VIRTUS training session. To make it easier for our families, we will be hosting a VIRTUS session on our campus at the SW site on Mon., May 21st at 6 pm. You will only need to attend this training one time and you will be good to go. To sign-up, go to www.virtusonline.org and follow the prompts. If you have any questions, contact Laura at (952) 758-5131. Please consider taking the training now so you will be prepared if/when God calls you to one of these ministries.

An Invitation from the Green Team ~ 2018

Spring is here and it's time to start thinking about our beautiful gardens. With the parking lot reconstruction, we have added many more gardens, including three large rain gardens. Now, more than ever, we need help from students, adults, and families to help keep our plantings healthy and looking good all summer. You are invited to consider volunteering to help with: spring clean up, mulching, special projects, adopting a garden for the summer, or selecting a week or more to help weed and water as needed. Contact Kathy McNamara if you have any questions, kathy.mcnamara@swsaints.org.

SW Festival ~ Mark Your Calendars!

It's not too early to start thinking about our parish festival. Mark your calendars for August 12th, so that all can plan to attend. Please remember us in your spring planting this year! We always appreciate the wide variety of produce provided. We are especially in need of volunteers to plant cucumbers and cabbage. If you are willing to grow either of these, please call Sean O'Neill at (612) 581-8481 or Lisa Giesen at (612) 986-6758.

Remember to Pray for Our Priests Daily

Pick up a Prayer/Calendar, available on the credenza in the back of church, with the names of priests listed to pray for during May.

SCHOOL NEWS from SWS*SWS STAFF SHOWCASE*Jane Jeffrey ~ 2nd Grade

Jane Jeffrey calls Iowa home.

Her first years of teaching were in Nevada, IA, where she taught children with specific learning disabilities in grades K-4. She then taught in grades 2 and 3. After moving to MN, she took a long-term substitute teaching position at SWS. That turned into a full-time job. Since then she has taught third, first, and now second grade. She attended North Texas State University earning a B.S. in elementary education with a specialization in special education. Since then she has earned 45+ graduate hours at various colleges in Iowa and Minnesota. She continues her education attending workshops and seminars.

Mrs. Jeffrey enjoys her yard in the winter by feeding and watching birds. In the summer, she is often outside attending to her flower gardens. She likes to walk, hike, read, and do crossword puzzles. She likes music whether by listening, singing in her church choir, or creating squeaks on a violin ~ a very novice player!

She loves primary-aged children ~ their enthusiasm, their "wows" when discovering something new, the smiles, and laughs they bring to her classroom. While many things have changed in education since she started teaching, these joys have not!

A few words from Deacon Bob...

- 1) Oops...I mistakenly placed the wrong date for the procession of potted flowers at the 8 am Mass in last week's bulletin. Our "flower" procession will be on May 13th at the 8 am Mass.
- 2) Do you remember the date of your First Communion? My First Communion was on May 8, 1960, at St. Andrew's in St. Paul. Even though St. Andrew's no longer exists (it was closed along with many churches in the Archdiocese in 2011), that day remains very memorable and fresh to this day. Remember the wonderment you experienced at your First Communion and share it with those who will be receiving their First Communion today at St. John the Evangelist and at St. Wenceslaus church sites.
- 3) On February 22, 1961, I received the sacrament of Confirmation at St. Andrew's in St. Paul. Archbishop Binz was the presider at the Confirmation Mass. What made it all the more memorable was when the Archbishop asked my classmate, Jimmy Burger, a question; Jimmy responded as he always did when under pressure...he threw up...not quite the answer the Archbishop was seeking. Though I was a mere third grader at the time, somehow the gifts of the Holy Spirit took hold. This past Tuesday, Confirmation candidates from our New Prague Area Catholic Community received the sacrament of Confirmation at St. Dominic's in Northfield. May they experience fully the sevenfold gifts of the Holy Spirit and go forth as disciples of our Risen Lord proclaiming the Good News.
