From the Desk of Father Kevin*What Our Gathering Celebrates at Our Christmas Mass!

Merry Christmas, parish members, friends, and families! Many things are celebrated this Christmas weekend. The Christian faith community especially celebrates our firm belief that the mystery that is God chose to draw us into an intimate personal love relationship so close that God became one of us in the person of Jesus Christ. We call this "the INCARNATION". From my perspective, Alice Camille of PREPARE THE WORD says it best:

My friend Sister Pam Smith describes Christmas as the "scandal of anti-transcendence." It's scandalous because God does what none of us hope to do: plunges from omnipotence to powerlessness, from eternity to limitation, from omnipresence to crushing specificity. From celestial majesty to prickly manger straw? That's a big comedown. There are cosmic consequences to this divine choice. The same God who "flung galaxies out and away . . . in pinwheels of matter and light" makes the uncanny decision to "drench Godself in starstuff and Earthdust. If we believe this, there can never be 'mere' matter" (Days of Light and Darkness). God wraps divine love in swaddling clothes and a baby's hungry cry. God serves up love to be eaten and drunk at tables the world over. God decrees that divine love can be discovered in coming together with people we love and also with people we don't love or even know. God is in the word, in the conversation, in the heart of the world, and the heart of each one of us.

So Merry Christmas indeed! God is in the world, in the flesh. God wants to be known as Emmanuel, God-with-us. Not some God-out-there, but God-right-here. Not a God who receives our prayers from faraway and may or may not reply—but a God who experiences our loneliness, sweats our fear, hopes for what we hope for, and works through us and with us to bring the future into being. Kingdom Coming won't be dropped painfully on our heads out of nowhere. Kingdom comes as we prepare to receive it, heart by heart by heart.

As the genealogy of Jesus reveals, God draws straight with the crooked lines of real lives. By means of our personal family trees, God is drawing us into the story of world rescue. Look around the holiday table. See where God chooses to act today.

Merry Christmas!

From the Desk of Father Dave

Do Not Be Afraid

Today we celebrate with great joy the birth of our Savior. Let the words of the Gloria ring true, "Glory to God in the highest and peace to his people on earth." We are his people and I hope each and every one of us can have peace in our lives. Throughout the Bible, God is constantly telling people do not be afraid. Zechariah (the father of John the Baptist), Mary, Joseph, and even the shepherds are all told not to be afraid. When the messengers of God come to you, the situation is serious and these biblical people acted with great bravery. They trusted God and God delivered.

We can be proud of our church family. We can surrender any pain and hurt we may have suffered and turn towards Jesus who has the power to heal any wound. Our focus is on the Christ child. Hopefully we can approach our faith with wonder and awe like a child would. Let fear of the future slow down. Trust that our loving God will provide, even if things don't go as we have planned. God does not abandoned us, but often points us in a new direction where healing can begin.

We welcome you with great joy if you don't come very often. Some of you are family who come with parents or grandparents because the church you are in holds many memories. We are so glad you are here and we welcome you to come back anytime. Perhaps you only come a few times a year. You are our special guests. No matter what called you to come out, we are happy to have you. We hope this experience causes you to consider coming more often. If you have any questions or concerns, I would be happy to hear from you. My contact information is in this bulletin. I am usually a pretty fast responder. Sometimes, if you use the office phone, there might be a little delay, but cell, text, and email work well. I wish you and your whole family a blessed Christmas!

PARISH AND AREA NEWS

Men's Group

A men's group is being formed to discuss and share those matters of faith, life, and spirituality which men often find challenging or of particular interest. The group plans to meet once a month or so for an hour and a half. It is intended that the meetings will start with refreshments, snacks, and visiting followed by a short Scripture reading and discussion. The setting will be informal and relaxed. The first meeting will be held at the Parish House of St. Wenceslaus on Dec. 29th at 7 pm. No advance reading is necessary but, if possible, please bring a Bible. All adult male parishioners of St. Wenceslaus and the Western Catholic Community are invited. If you are interested in participating in the group but cannot make the first meeting or have any questions, please call David Karan at (952) 461-3067.

Have you ever thought about doing something special to enrich your already good relationship? That is exactly what a Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend can do for you. It is an enrichment program designed for couples with good marriages who want to make them better. The Weekend is for couples no matter how long you have been married. Here's the great news ~ Worldwide Marriage Encounter is coming right here to St. Wenceslaus Parish in New Prague on Feb. 10-12, 2017. Consider taking advantage of this wonderful opportunity. Discover what other couples across the world have been able to do ~ Deepen their relationship by going on a Weekend. What's the best legacy you can give your children? Answer: A happy and loving relationship. Children thrive under these conditions. For more information, visit our website at: twincitieswwme.org or contact Brent & Tracy at (612) 756-8720 or at applications@twincitieswwme.org.

Bulletin Board Honoring Our Military

In the back of church, there is a bulletin board display regarding local military currently serving and/or deployed. This is a way for our parishioners to keep these individuals and their families in your thoughts and prayers. Others interested to include your loved one on this display, contact Helen Hartman at 758-3842 or Mary Pieper at (952) 873-6781.

Do You Have Time & A Green Thumb?

Helpers are needed to care for the plants and flowers in church during the winter months from immediately after Christmas through Lent and Easter. If you, your family, or a small group of friends are interested in a temporary project, call Cathy at (952) 758-5017. If you can't volunteer the entire time, you may want to consider helping for just a week or two.

Breakfast with Dad Will Continue in January

Breakfast with Dad will not meet Sat., Dec. 31st. We will continue in January and run through May. Bring your children (all ages) and join us for food, faith, and fellowship 8-9:30 am Saturday mornings in the St. Wenceslaus Church basement. There are very few things a father can give his children that will last forever. Activities will be provided for the children. Registration appreciated, but not required. ### Soup Kitchen Update at the Dorothy Day Center

Meals are continuing to be served at the Dorothy Day Center (DDC) in St. Paul. Many have seen news about the new facility adjacent the DDC which is housing and sleeping for the many in need. Preparations are now continuing to demolish the existing DDC to build a new multipurpose facility that will include cooking and serving as we are accustomed to. As this second phase of the project progresses, we are committed and continuing the preparing and serving a meal once a month which will occur at a site very near to the existing DDC. For over 22 years, volunteers and donors have made this ministry possible. St. Wenceslaus and all within the NPACC should know of the continuing gratitude and thankfulness that is shown to the NPACC by staff and guests at the DDC. I consider it a privilege to serve those who come to the DDC and I hope you also feel that blessing. May we continue to be blessed with volunteers and donations in attempt to follow what the gospel suggests in many different ways. Merry Christmas! Norb Sticha

As often as you did it for one of my least brothers, you did it for me.

Come, Lord Jesus!

How sad it is that there was no room in the inn for the Christ Child - God humbling himself to come among us. St. Benedict, whose followers are known for their hospitality, challenges us, “Let everyone that comes be received as Christ.”

We have the opportunity to make room, in many ways.

- That means that people who come to our church doors asking for assistance are treated with respect and generosity.
- Warmly greet visitors who come to our church and make them feel welcome.
- We can make a special effort to get to know each other and see the Christ in one another.
- We can strive to let go of grudges and hurts that inevitably arise out of our humanness, in our families and church community.
- We can set aside some quiet time to open our hearts to Jesus in Eucharistic adoration in our chapel.
- We offer hospitality to homeless families and those in need through Families Moving Forward and Adopt-A-Family.
- We remain open to the possibility that Jesus may come to us in the migrant, the immigrant, the refugee, in people who don't look or sound like us.

We are challenged to open our hearts and hands to stranger, friend, and family alike.

May the blessings of this season be upon us, our families, and our parish community of faith. May we be awake to wonder, to joy, to grace, and to the coming of Christ among us in each other.

Welcome to our world
