

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

April 22, 2018

EARTH DAY

Catholic Social Teaching and Climate Change

Who cares? It's all overblown, anyway.

OR

I have enough things to worry about. Let someone else take care of it.

OR

It's real, but the problems are so serious that there's nothing I can do that will help.

OR

I CAN make a difference!

The call to care for creation is deeply imbedded in Catholic Social Teachings and goes hand in hand with Jesus' charge to care for the most vulnerable among us. We are deciding what kind of a world we will pass on to future generations.

What can we do?

Turn off the lights ~ Turn down the heat ~ Drive the car less ~ Turn up the air conditioning temp control ~ Bike or walk more ~ Eat more locally produced food ~ Take time to enjoy the sunrise and sunset ~ Teach children to appreciate nature ~ Reduce your use of pesticides and toxic cleaning products ~ Educate yourself on environmental issues ~ Pray for good weather for farmers' planting and for a good growing season ~ Plant a garden ~ Thank God for the gift of creation ~ Believe that what you do counts!

A Message Regarding Care for Creation...

"A hired man, who is not a shepherd and whose sheep are not his own...works for pay and has no concern for the sheep."

"I am the good shepherd...and I will lay down my life for the sheep."

Jesus cares, not just about our eternal salvation, but about our lives here on earth, as evidenced by the healing and compassion he showed us as he walked among us. He cares for all, the greatest and especially the least. As disciples, we are challenged to care for our brothers and sisters as well. It's not enough for us to take our "pay" in our comforts and privileges with no concern for others. This has implications that are not easy to respond to seriously.

Today is Earth Day, when we are reminded once again of our duty to care for our planet and its inhabitants. It's been three years since Pope Francis challenged us, in his encyclical Laudato Si: on Care for our Common Home, to engage in serious dialogue about how we are shaping the future of our planet. He calls the Church and the world to acknowledge the urgency of our environmental challenges and to take action.

How much progress have we made? We continue to make strides in technology and energy sources that will reduce our carbon footprint in the future, but scientists are concerned that time is running out to avoid major consequences of climate change. Have we concern for the "sheep," the poor of the world who will suffer the most impact from rising sea waters, droughts bringing water and food shortages, major storms with their destructive impacts? It can seem hopeless.

There are little things we can do, of course, and the bulletin cover offers a host of suggestions. We can also support organizations like Catholic Relief Services, which aides people who suffer from natural disasters and helps with implementation of sustainable practices in developing nations. Another important way to respond is to let our elected officials know how critical it is for our state and nation to take seriously our response to the threats of climate change.

The changes we make in our lifestyle, the time we take to inform ourselves and contact our legislators, the generosity we show in sharing our gifts, these are all ways we can "lay down our life" for our fellow human beings on earth.

From Laudato Si: The poor and the earth are crying out. O Lord, seize us with your power and light, help us to protect all life, to prepare for a better future, for the coming of your Kingdom of justice, peace, love and beauty. Praise be to you!

From the Desk of Deacon Bob

Have you ever felt abandoned? I have known many people who have felt abandoned. Abandonment comes in many forms. When a spouse dies, the widow or widower experiences not only grief of losing someone they loved, but also the feeling of being left all alone. There is the loneliness of being the sole surviving sibling of a family. There are those going through separation and divorce who experience not only being abandoned by their ex-spouse, but also by many of their family and friends. There are many children, caught in the world of foster homes, who feel abandoned and unwanted. There are those children and adolescents who are so cruelly bullied and abandoned by their peers that they opt to die by suicide.

Abandonment is the curse of a society that glorifies the individual to the point of narcissism. We find that our world of "me first and the heck with everybody else", condemns many to a life of loneliness and neglect. The readings for today are a much needed comfort for all who feel lonely and abandoned.

In John's first letter he writes, "See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God." Though we may feel unloved and abandoned by all in our life, God loves us as His very own children. The bond of love that God has for us can never be severed. Paul expresses this in his letter to the Romans, "What can separate us from the love of God?" Paul answers the question saying that no matter what may happen to us, absolutely nothing can separate us from the love of God. Today, Jesus tells us that the love relationship we have with him is as intimate as the relationship he has with the Father. "I am the good shepherd, and I know mine and mine know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I will lay down my life for the sheep."

Though we may feel abandoned and unloved, Jesus, abandoned and betrayed by those he loved, knows our pain and assures us that his love relationship with us remains for all eternity.

Today the Church throughout the world prays for vocations. Will you make a special effort to ask the Lord for more vocations to the priesthood and religious life?

- Pray for the priests who have ministered to you throughout your life, both living and dead.
- Keep our parish priests in your prayers throughout the week.
- Encourage your children, grandchildren, or other young people to consider a vocation as a priest or religious brother or sister.
- Pray a rosary for more young men and women in our diocese to respond to God's call.

Catholic Home Missions Appeal

Next week, we will take up the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. Right now, over 40 percent of dioceses in the United States are considered home mission territory because they are unable to fund the essential pastoral work needed in their communities. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this appeal. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/home-missions.

Memorial Mass for Brother Ambrose Eischens will take place at St. Patrick Church, Jordan, at 6 pm Tues., April 24th. Brother Ambrose was very involved at the Franciscan Spirituality and Retreat Center in Prior Lake over the years and passed away in December.

FAITH FORMATION AND YOUTH MINISTRY

Grades 5, 7, & 8 are full. We will accept students on a waiting list for those grades. If we get up to 20 students, AND can find a catechist, we will offer a second section. Grade 2 has one spot left. The other grade levels have several spots open. If you are choosing this option, please sign up soon. We have had inquiries from people from other parishes, but our parishioners do get first choice. By mid-May, we will open it up to others. SCHOOL NEWS from SWS

SWS STAFF SHOWCASE Jamie Schoenbauer ~ 8th Grade Home Room

Jamie Schoenbauer oversees the 8th-grade homeroom. She also teaches 7/8 language arts and social studies. She believes that if students are held to high expectations, they will strive for them, so she pushes them to work hard every day. This work ethic is tempered by a fair amount of humor.

Jamie has been a middle school teacher for 17 years. Her first job was teaching and coaching in Austin, Texas.

Never stop learning is one of her mantras. She recently completed her STEM certification from St. Catherine University.

Jamie's favorite part of teaching is the kids. They make her laugh every day and give her hope for the future of our country and world. The families and staff at SWS make her look forward to going to work each day, and Room 18 has become her home away from home. It is something special to be part of such a close-knit community.

You will most likely find Jamie reading a book. Her biggest goal is to turn every student into a reader as avid as she is. You can catch her every MEA leading the 8th grade's annual adventure to Washington, DC!

WESTERN CATHOLIC COMMUNITY St. John's & St. Scholastica

Catholic United Financial Matching Grant Breakfast has been rescheduled to this Sunday, April 22nd. All are welcome to join us for ham, eggs, and cinnamon rolls in the St. John's School from 8:00 am-12:00 pm.

From Deacon Bob ~

- I think we can all agree that a Spring Blizzard makes for a messy weekend. As the sole ordained clergy in New Prague during the storm (Fr. Kevin was stranded in St. Paul), attempting to manage what to do with 6 Masses on the weekend was a bit daunting. I am thankful to Millie Odenthal, Carol Weiers, Kevin Giesen, and others I consulted on Saturday. May we not have to do this again for a very long time.

- Dates to keep on your calendar. On May 6th, we will be celebrating the first communions of children from our community at the 10 am Mass at St. John the Evangelist. May 13th, the Solemnity of the Ascension, is also Mother's Day. At St. Scholastica, women from our community will begin Mass by processing in with potted flowers that will be planted in Our Lady of Fatima shrine just north of the church. At St. John the Evangelist, we will have our annual May Crowning. Fr. Mike Tix will be the presider at the Masses on both of these weekends.

- We are in need of people to help wash and iron the purificators used for Mass at St. Scholastica. If you are able to assist in this, please call Deacon Bob at (952) 758-0463.

ATTENTION: Western Catholic Community 2018 Graduating Seniors and Parents

The WCC Graduation Mass will be held on Sun., May 20th, at the 8:00 and 10:00 am Masses. Graduates will wear their caps and gowns for this Mass. There will be a breakfast after the 10 am Mass for all graduates and their parents. Please call Carol Weiers by May 7th at (952) 873-4569 to RSVP.

An Invitation to Join the Green Team - 2018

We have a variety of beautiful gardens throughout our campus. With the recent parking lot reconstruction, we have added many more, including three large rain gardens. We need help from students, adults, and families to help keep our plantings healthy and looking good all summer. You are invited to consider volunteering to adopt a garden for the summer, select a week or more to help weed and water as needed, or help with planting and mulching projects.

Please return this form to the SWS office or parish office by Monday, May 14th, or contact Kathy McNamara at Kathy.McNamara@swsaints.org. Thank you!
